BIS TO HOST PRESTIGIOUS 77TH IEC GENERAL MEETING 2013 AT NEW DELHI

Bureau of Indian Standards is hosting the 77th IEC General Meeting in 2013(IECGM2013) in New Delhi during 16-26 October 2013. The meeting is likely to be attended by about 800 delegates from approximately 100 countries.

The IEC is one of three global sister organizations (IEC, ISO, ITU) that develop International Standards for the world. Founded in 1906, the International Electro-technical Commission (IEC) is the world's leading organization for the preparation and publication of International Standards for all electrical, electronic and related technologies.

The IEC General Meetings provides an exceptional opportunity to the industry/industry associations to increase their visibility amongst key industry leaders.. At this event the technical experts in the field of electro-technology and top level managers from various countries across the globe come together to decide on current issues and future directions and strategies for the International Electro-Technical Commission (IEC) .

BIS has been actively participating in the work of technical committees of IEC. Indian Standards are harmonized with IEC standards (wherever they exist) to the extent possible in order to facilitate adoption of IEC standards by all segments of industry and business.
