

Typical process flow for Grant of Licence under FMCS (Foreign Manufacturers Certification Scheme)

Note : The normal time period for Grant of Licence under FMCS is 6 months . The time period will be counted from date of recording of application. Under FMCS scheme, the actual time taken may exceed if some actions are pending on the part of the applicant. Arranging visa and other clearances may also take additional time. The licence is granted, initially up to 2 years and subsequently can be renewed up to 5 year based on performance