About OHSMS IS 18001

Health and safety is one of the most important aspects of an organization's smooth and effective functioning. Good health and safety performance ensures an accident free industrial environment. With the continuous and untiring effort of various legislative authorities as well as NGOs, the awareness of occupational health and safety (OH&S) has improved in India considerably. Organizations have started attaching the same importance to achieve high OH&S performance as they do to other key aspects of their business activities. The course content includes requirements for an occupational health and safety (OH&S) management system, to enable an organization to formulate a policy and objectives, taking into account legislative requirements and information about significant hazards and risks, which the organization can control and over which it can be expected to have an influence, to protect its employees and others, whose health and safety may be affected by the activities of the organization.

Who Should Attend

The organizations which are implementing (or are in the process of implementing) OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS (OHSMS) as per IS 18001 in their organizations require their executive at appropriate level trained in this area for effective implementation of the system
