

REENA GARG

Head (Electronics & IT Department), BIS

Reena Garg is Scientist-F and currently the Head of 'Electronics and IT' standardization Department (LITD) of BIS. At present, there are 28 Technical Committees under LITD.

She is B.E. (Electronics & communication) from Netaji Subhas Institute of Technology (NSIT), New Delhi and MBA. She has 22 years of experience in the field of Electronics and IT standardization at BIS. She has handled the standardization work in various important areas including Information System Security, Biometrics, Electromagnetic Compatibility, Identification Cards, Data management systems, Computer Hardware and peripherals, Indian Language Technologies and products, Safety of AV and IT products etc. She has represented India in various IEC, ISO and JTC1 meetings.

She has also worked in certification activities of BIS including worked in Compulsory registration Scheme (CRS) for safety of electronics and IT Goods.

She is the secretary of ISO/IEC/JTC1/SC7 Software and Systems Engineering subcommittee, responsible for formulating international standards in this area.