

Shri M. BHARATH KUMAR

Graduated from Osmania University, Hyderabad in Electronics & communication engineering, joined the 25th batch of BARC training school in 1981. After completion of one year training in Nuclear science and Engineering at BARC, he has joined C&I group of erstwhile Power Projects Engineering Division, Department of Atomic Energy in 1982.

During his carrier spanning from 1982 to till date, he has significantly contributed in Design, Development, Engineering, procurement and commissioning of many C&I systems, Security systems and Fuel Handling systems for 220 MWe, 540 MWe and 700 MWe PHWRs, PFBR & PWRs having several advanced safety features and several First Of A Kind (FOAK) systems. He has also contributed significantly as a member of several departmental (NPCIL), National & international committees like AERB, BIS, ITER and IAEA.

Presently, he is working as Distinguished Scientist and heading the E&I group in NPCIL as Executive Director. He is also one of the Board of director of ECIL and Member, Project Design safety committee for Prototype Fast Breeder reactors.

