

PROFILE, Chairman, MSD 4

Shri V.K. Jain Chairman MSD4 committee of BIS had been Head Supply Chain, InterGlobe General Aviation and Director, Indian Airlines. He also attained the position of President, Indian Institute of Materials Management (IIMM) and represented it on Board of Directors of International Federation of Purchasing and Supply Management (IFPSM), Switzerland for four years. He is recipient of National award, the highest recognition by IIMM

He worked in Ranbaxy Ltd, and Voltas, for a short stint before joining Indian Airlines as a management trainee and reached to the level of a Director where he was responsible for planning, sourcing, warehousing, logistics and other areas of supply management support including contracting for varied types of material and services at both field and corporate levels for more than three decades.

On behalf of IIMM, Mr. Jain organized very successfully various national conventions and has been instrumental in conduct of number of events on current topics including Supply Chain Management, Total Quality Management, ISO 9000, Barcode Technology, e-Commerce and Green Purchasing. He was also responsible for bringing ITC – MLS, Geneva programme to India. He has addressed various training programs on varied topics of management

He jointly prepared a glossary on Materials Management

He is a Mechanical Engineering Graduate from DCE, Delhi and Master in Business Administration from FMS, University of Delhi.